Family Advocacy Program

Department of the Army policy is to prevent spouse and child abuse, to protect those who are victims of abuse, to treat those affected by abuse, and ensure personnel are professionally trained to intervene in abuse cases. Since many incidents of abuse constitute violations of the law, DA policy also recognizes the commander's authority to take disciplinary or administrative action in appropriate cases. The Family Advocacy Pragram at Army Community Service provides a wide range of services that strengthens Families and enhances relationships. We believe that these services help support our Soldiers, their Families, and the Army mission. For more information about Family Advocacy Programs or to schedule a class or briefing, contact 263-4782 / 4853. The Reporting Point of Contact (RPOC) for all suspected child or spouse abuse is the Military Police (MP) at 263-3002.

- Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program (SAPRP) Hot line from a DSN: 882# or 090-9395-8909. This is a commander's program designed to help prevent sexual assault through increased awareness and training and to provide information and resources if sexual assault occurs. An individual who has been sexually assaulted may report the incident in a restricted or unrestricted manner. To make a restricted report, contact a medical provider, chaplain, the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC) at 263-4782 / 4853 or your Unit Victim Advocate. To make an unrestricted report, contact the Military Police at 263-3002, the chain of command, or the SARC at 263-4782 / 4853 or 090-9395-8909.
- Safe Helpline Safe Helpline provides three ways for DoD community members affected by sexual assault to get help. These services are anonymous, secure, an available 24/7 worldwide --providing victims with the help they need, anytime, anywhere. The Online helpline provides confidential crisis intervention, support and information to service members of the DoD community who have been sexually assaulted. In addition to providing help online, Safe-Helpline is also available by phone worldwide: 877-995-5247. The phone number is the same inside the US or via the Defense Switched Network (DSN). DSN users can dial US toll-free numbers by simply dialing 94 + the 10-digit toll-free number. Do you want to contact the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC) on your installation or base? Just text your zip code or installation or base name to: 55-247 (inside the US) 202-470-5546 (outside the US).
- Victim Advocacy: Victim Advocacy is a free service for all personnel in the military community. The Victim Advocate for Camp Zama is located in Building #402 with Army Community Service. Victims are encouraged to come and speak with a trained Victim Advocate and inquire about available services. The Victim Advocate works with those who have been a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault. Reports of Domestic Violence (DV) may be made on a restricted or unrestricted basis. To file a restricted report related to a domestic abuse incident, a victim may also report to a health care provider or the Victim Advocate supervisor in order to access medical care or other supportive services including referral to service providers, advice, or safety planning. Information provided in a restricted report will not be disclosed to command or to low enforcement. For additional information about domestic violence restricted and unrestricted reporting, please contact Family Advocacy at 263-4782 / 4853, or 080-5968-3188.

When you park your car, whether it is front parking, back parking or even parallel parking, refrain from hitting the curb with the tire. Each time the wheel "hits" the curb there is a very good chance of not only damaging the tire but also the wheel and causes the alignment to be off. If the wheels are out of alignment then the tires will wear quicker.

The United States Army Suggestion Program

The Army Suggestion Program (previously known as the Army Ideas for Excellence Program) has gone online.

The new suggestion processing program was unveiled on Army Knowledge Online (AKO). Anyone with an AKO user name and password can now submit suggestions electronically. Detailed guidance is provided on the web page at https://armysuggestions.army.mil.

There are several advantages to this program; the biggest plus being that anyone with access to the Web can make a suggestion from any where that they are. There is no longer a need to wait until you return to your home station to write-up and submit your idea.

Once submitted, the suggestion is processed entirely on-line.

For further information, contact the program administrator, Mr. Keith Simon, keith.simon@us.army.mil, DSN 263-5129 or Mr. Masao Naito, masao.naito@us.army.mil, DSN 263-55634, Plans, Analysis and Integration Office (USAG-J), US Army Garrison, Japan.
